Consider What Your Income Makes Possible

Your income is the foundation of the life you created. Without income, our everyday lives and our plans for the future are affected. What does the life you built look like? What would be impacted if you were too sick or injured to work? Use the Monthly Expense Tool on this page to assess your personal situation and learn what may be at risk.

What if the Unexpected Happened to You?

Illnesses like cancer, heart attack or diabetes cause the majority of long-term disabilities. Back pain, injuries, and arthritis are also significant causes.* If the unexpected happened to you…

▶ How long would your savings last?
▶ Would your spouse or partner’s income be sufficient for all your financial obligations?
▶ What lifestyle changes would you be forced to make — forgo college funding, postpone retirement, downsize your home?

Sources of Income Replacement

When you lose the ability to earn a living, other sources of income become critical to maintaining your lifestyle. But are they enough? Will they be there when you need them?

▶ Employer-Sponsored Group Disability Coverage
▶ Social Security
▶ Worker’s Compensation
▶ Retirement Savings
▶ Personal Assets
▶ Spousal Income

Individual disability income protection is one of the most reliable and flexible sources of income replacement.

POINTS TO DRIVE HOME:

• Income is the foundation of your client’s future goals and without it, all other aspects of financial and insurance planning fall apart.
• It’s important to make sure your clients understand their risk and review their personal situation.
• Disability income insurance is not a luxury. It is a critical part of any insurance/financial plan.
• Those who participate in a Group LTD plan at work may not have sufficient protection due to Group plan limitations.

Consider a Policy in its Entirety

Acknowledging that your current sources of income replacement may not be adequate in the event you become too sick or injured to work is a key first step. Now it’s time to evaluate choices that will meet your needs for income replacement. It’s important to consider how a policy performs in its entirety to determine if the coverage can provide sufficient value and financial assistance during a period of disability. The information below was developed to help you understand how disability income policies work and how they differ from company to company. Use the questions and key terms on this page to help identify the features to look for in a high-quality disability income policy.

One

How much income replacement will I need?

To start, use the Monthly Expense Tool on Page 1 to determine your risk. Discuss your personal situation with your insurance professional, who can provide further detailed assessment of your income replacement needs.

Two

How much coverage may I qualify for?

The monthly benefit amount is based on your financial and occupational information. Most policies offer the opportunity to purchase more coverage as your income grows without the need to provide further evidence of good health.

Three

What will determine whether or not I’m disabled and when do benefits begin?

The core of any disability income policy, the definition of Total Disability, outlines what constitutes being totally disabled. This definition is in every carrier’s policy; however, it does not always mean the same thing. Some policies pay benefits if you’re unable to perform the duties of your own occupation, even if you are at work in another occupation. Others pay only if you’re unable to perform the duties of your own occupation and you are not working in any other occupation. Still others pay only if you cannot work in any occupation for which you are reasonably qualified.

Most policies also offer benefits for Residual Disability — those payable if your disability isn’t “total” but does result in your inability to perform some aspects of your job. Residual disability benefits are typically payable in an amount that is proportionate to the loss of income suffered due to sickness or injury. Many policies have different requirements.

A policy’s Elimination Period (or waiting period) is the length of time that must elapse following the onset of disability before benefits become payable.

Four

How long will benefits be payable?

A policy’s Benefit Period refers to the maximum length of time your policy will pay benefits once you become eligible. Standard choices include 2, 5, or 10 years; to age 65 or to age 67. A few select policies offer the option to extend benefits for life should you remain continuously, totally disabled.

Five

Could my policy be changed, cancelled or my premium raised?

Renewability provisions are among the most critical features of any disability income policy because they define your rights for keeping your coverage in force. Policies can be non-cancellable and guaranteed renewable, or guaranteed renewable only. Policies that are both Non-Cancellable and Guaranteed Renewable offer the strongest premium and coverage guarantees available, which means as long as your premiums are paid on time, your policy cannot be cancelled, premiums cannot be increased and policy provisions cannot be changed. Policies that are only Guaranteed Renewable cannot be cancelled, but premiums can be increased.

Six

Will my benefits keep pace with inflation?

Most policies offer riders to help your benefits keep pace with inflation. A Cost of Living Adjustment (COLA) rider will adjust benefits each year while you remain disabled and eligible for benefits. COLA riders can be vital to maintaining your standard of living during an extended period of disability.

POINTS TO DRIVE HOME:

• It’s imperative that your clients consider any policy in its entirety to understand its true value during a time of disability, which is generally a time of increased emotional and financial stress.
• Don’t rely on the attraction of a single feature, unless the entire policy works holistically to protect your client’s income before, during and after a disability.
• Lower-cost policies may provide lower overall benefits.
When it comes to income protection, professionals should consider policies that can pay more during a disability and throughout recovery, as described in this brochure.

We may not know when a disability could strike — but by choosing ProVider Plus, you can feel confident in owning a high-performing policy from a reputable industry innovator with exemplary financial ratings. Berkshire Life, a Guardian company, has the following ratings as of August, 2013:

▶ A++ from A.M. Best Company

POINTS TO DRIVE HOME:
• Let value, not cost, be the deciding factor for your clients — or they could find themselves with limited coverage during a lengthy period of disability.
• Ask if there are other people they’d like you to meet with — for example, spouse, accountant, attorney, business partner, etc.
Definition of Total Disability

Feature Value

The Choice to Work in Another Occupation is Yours

How this Feature Works to Protect You

ProVider Plus is purposefully designed to offer you options so that you can choose the definition of total disability that best serves your unique circumstances. This choice is made at the time that you initially purchase your policy.

With our Modified Own-Occupation definition of Total Disability, you will be eligible for total disability benefits when you are unable to perform the material and substantial duties of your occupation solely due to injury or sickness and you are not gainfully employed.

Our True Own-Occupation definition of Total Disability makes it possible for you to work in another occupation and still be eligible for total disability benefits. We consider you totally disabled if, solely due to injury or sickness, you are unable to perform the material and substantial duties of your occupation.

Advantages of our True Own-Occupation definition of total disability include:

▶ If you have the energy, interest, and motivation to pursue another occupation, while totally disabled in your occupation, you may do so and still be eligible for your total disability benefits.

▶ If you are a physician or a dentist who has limited your occupation to the performance of the material and substantial duties of a single medical or dental specialty, we will deem that specialty to be your occupation.

Product provisions and availability may vary by state. Refer to the Appendix for more information regarding product terms and conditions.

POINTS TO DRIVE HOME:
Not all “own-occupation” policies are the same. We offer two definitions of disability:

• True own-occupation — Our definition is the most flexible in the industry: If disabled, your client can decide to work in another occupation and not forfeit their disability benefits.
  – Specialty language for medical and dental professionals who have limited their practice to a particular specialty
  – Important consideration for clients who have invested a significant amount of time, money, and energy to become the professionals they are

• Modified own-occupation — a cost-effective option for clients who need less comprehensive coverage
Non-Cancellable & Guaranteed Renewable

Feature Value

Offers the Greatest Degree of Consumer Protection

How this Feature Works to Protect You

Renewability provisions are among the most critical features of any disability income policy because they define your rights for keeping your coverage in force. ProVider Plus offers one of the strongest premium and coverage guarantees available because it is both Non-Cancellable and Guaranteed Renewable to age 65 or 67.

- In considering ProVider Plus, a policy that is both non-cancellable and guaranteed renewable, you are assured that premium rates and policy provisions will not be changed as long as premiums are paid on a timely basis.
- Personal ownership of a non-cancellable and guaranteed renewable policy means it is portable, so you can take it with you even if you change employers.

Product provisions and availability may vary by state. Refer to the Appendix for more information regarding product terms and conditions.

POINTS TO DRIVE HOME:
- Your client wants the security of knowing the policy they are purchasing cannot be cancelled.
- No one wants to feel that a carrier can increase their rates.
- Be sure to remind your client that, although their Group LTD is a good foundation, it is best supplemented with a comprehensive individual disability income policy.
Residual Disability Benefit Rider

Feature Value

Supports Your Financial Recovery as You Recover Physically

How this Feature Works to Protect You

Sometimes an illness or injury doesn’t cause a total disability but does limit your ability to work, which results in decreased income. Or, you might suffer a total disability and return to work, but not at your pre-disability earnings.

Our Residual Disability Benefit Rider provides benefits when, solely due to injury or sickness, you suffer a loss of income of 15% or more. Benefits are calculated using dollar-for-dollar income replacement for the first 12 months, up to the policy’s monthly benefit. After that, benefits are paid in proportion to your income loss. If the loss of income is 75% or more, we will consider the loss to be 100%.

Our Residual Disability Benefit Rider includes a Recovery Provision. See how our Recovery Provision compares to other carriers:

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

¹ In California, this is called the Partial Disability Benefit Rider. Additional conditions and limitations may apply.

² If you own multiple disability insurance policies, the feature payable under the Residual Disability Benefit Rider will be reduced by benefits payable under those policies that were in force before this rider was issued, so that the sum of all disability benefits does not exceed actual lost income.

³ Recovery provisions are included with Residual Benefit Rider.

⁴ Requirements vary by carrier.

Product provisions and availability may vary by state. Refer to the Appendix for more information regarding product terms and conditions.

POINTS TO DRIVE HOME:

- The ProVider Plus Residual Disability Benefit Rider is one of our most frequently purchased riders.
- Whether for ProVider Plus or ProVider Plus Limited this rider is designed to do more during physical recovery and help your client with their financial recovery — making a transition back to full-time work after a disability easier.
- The ProVider Plus Limited Basic Residual Disability Benefit Rider is a cost-effective alternative to the Residual Disability Benefit Rider. This residual benefits option provides quality protection against the financial risks of a partial disability with a level of benefits more typical of competitor products.
Recovery Provision

Feature Value

Pays Benefits While You Recover Financially

How this Feature Works to Protect You

This provision, which is built into our Residual Disability Benefit Rider, is designed to do more to assist with your financial recovery following a disability. Should you continue to suffer at least a 15% loss of income solely due to your sickness or injury — even after you have physically recovered and returned to work with no limitations or restriction — we continue to pay benefits for up to the full benefit period. Unlike many other carriers, we don’t apply additional requirements to qualify for a benefit.

And unlike most other carriers, we’ll waive any premiums due while you are disabled and receiving benefits, and for six months after you recover and benefits end.

Product provisions and availability may vary by state. Refer to the Appendix for more information regarding product terms and conditions.

POINTS TO DRIVE HOME:

• Recovery benefits can be critical for fee-based clients who have the potential to have longer recovery periods in order to bring their earnings back to more than:
  – 85% of their pre-disability earnings (ProVider Plus)
  – 80% of their pre-disability earnings (ProVider Plus Limited)
• Unlike many other carriers, we don’t apply additional requirements to qualify for a benefit. Other carriers may require the client to be back full-time in their prior occupation, or that a total or residual disability benefit be paid prior to recovery.

Waiver of Elimination Period

Feature Value

Pays Sooner for Subsequent Disabilities Regardless of Cause

How this Feature Works to Protect You

We understand that any period of disability can be emotionally and financially stressful. We took this into account when we designed our unique Waiver of Elimination Period (EP) policy feature. If you suffer a disability that lasts more than six months and we pay benefits, we will waive the elimination period for any subsequent disability that occurs within five years — regardless of the cause.

CONSIDER THIS: You have a heart attack and you’re Totally Disabled for seven months. After satisfying the elimination period, you received benefits. Then you recover.

We Pay More Benefits Sooner

Chart Assumptions: $10,000 monthly benefit, 90-day elimination period.

* The elimination period of a disability insurance policy may be referred to in days or months. The ProVider Plus elimination period is expressed in terms of days. For the purpose of this illustration, one month equals 30 days.

Product provisions and availability may vary by state. Refer to the Appendix for more information regarding product terms and conditions.

POINTS TO DRIVE HOME:

• This feature is:
  – Built into the base policy. It is not a rider.
  – Designed to provide access to day one benefits in the event of a recurring disability within five years of a previous disability.

• Consider this: Benefits received when your client would typically be satisfying their Elimination Period may be enough to fund their policy’s income protection for 10+ years.
Waiver of Premium Benefit

Feature Value

Helps Reduce Financial Stress After Recovery

How this Feature Works to Protect You

We waive premiums during a period of disability and continue waiving for six months after your claim ends. What’s more, we also reimburse for premiums you may have paid that apply to the period of disability — even if paid prior to your disability.

▶ We refund any premiums you have paid that apply to the period of disability.
▶ We’ll waive premiums for as long as you’re disabled in the same claim and receiving benefits.
▶ We’ll continue to waive premiums for six months following your recovery.

This is another unique advantage we provide to help you stay focused on getting back to work and restoring financial health.

Product provisions and availability may vary by state. Refer to the Appendix for more information regarding product terms and conditions.

POINTS TO DRIVE HOME:

• Waiving six months of premium after claim can be a cost savings to your client.
• This is another way we help our customers during their physical and financial recovery.
Future Increase Option Rider

Feature Value

Guarantees the Opportunity to Increase Benefits as Your Income Grows with No Medical Underwriting

How this Feature Works to Protect You

To help protect a growing income, our Future Increase Option (FIO) Rider is designed to help you increase coverage with ease — even if you are disabled. Obtaining additional coverage to protect a growing income normally requires providing evidence of good health. Our Future Increase Option Rider offers you the opportunity to purchase additional coverage each year on the policy’s anniversary, up to and including age 55, with no medical insurability requirement. Your eligibility will be determined by your then-current financial situation and taking into consideration other disability insurance you have in force, for which you have applied, or for which you are eligible. Here’s how it works:

▶ Annually, up to age 45, you can exercise all or part of your remaining FIO option amount.
▶ Annually, from age 45 and until age 55, you can exercise up to one-third of the original FIO amount (or your remaining FIO amount, if less than $1,000).
▶ Special Option Dates! Our FIO rider also includes special option dates that allow off-anniversary increases for events such as the loss of group long-term disability coverage.
▶ You may exercise your increase option, even if you are disabled and on claim. The premium for the increase would be waived while on claim and for six months afterwards. Your additional coverage would then apply to any new and separate disability.

Product provisions and availability may vary by state. Refer to the Appendix for more information regarding product terms and conditions.

POINTS TO DRIVE HOME:

• Increase coverage with greater ease than when medical underwriting is required.
• Your clients have the ability to choose to exercise this option
  – Annually, up to age 55. (ProVider Plus)
  – Every three years, up to age 55. (ProVider Plus Limited)
• Your clients can align protection with income.
Cost of Living Adjustment Rider

Feature Value
Can Significantly Increase Benefits During a Disability

How this Feature Works to Protect You
During a disability, fixed dollar benefits cannot keep pace with inflation. That is why a Cost of Living Adjustment (COLA) Rider provides an important benefit. We offer three different COLA rider options that adjust your policy’s monthly benefit annually to help keep pace with inflation during a disability. Each of these riders is designed to adjust your monthly benefit, whether you’re totally or residually disabled, and includes compound annual adjustments and a minimum benefit adjustment of 3%, calculated on a compounded basis. There are no limits to the number of annual adjustments that may be made on your policy before age 65. Additionally, should you recover, you’d automatically retain increases, free of charge, until age 65 or 67.

Lump Sum Disability Benefit Rider

Feature Value
Provides an Aggregate Benefit for Purposes of Your Choosing

How this Feature Works to Protect You
You could experience periods of disability during your prime earning years that interrupt the accumulation of savings for purposes such as college expenses, real estate investment, retirement or other long-term goals. Our Lump Sum Disability Benefit Rider is designed to help you offset some of those missed opportunities for creating financial security. This class-leading feature, available only on ProVider Plus, includes a:

- Benefit equal to 35% of all total and residual disability benefits paid over the lifetime of your policy.
- Lump sum payment at the policy expiration date.
- An added plus is that you do not have to be disabled at age 65 or 67 in order to qualify.

ProVider Plus is the only disability income policy in the marketplace that offers a rider for a lump sum disability benefit payment at age 65 or 67. This feature offers an opportunity to regain some of your financial footing following a disability.

POINTS TO DRIVE HOME:
- Clients clearly understand the short-term effects of a disability — But how many understand the long-term impacts?
- Attractive, aggregate payment at age 65 or 67 could give your client flexibility and peace of mind.
- Clients can do what they want with the money — pay off mortgage, retirement funds, leave to heirs, etc.
- The only one of its kind in the marketplace, this rider is available on ProVider Plus only.

1 Patent pending
2 To qualify, the sum of Total and/or Residual Disability Benefits paid over the life of the policy must be equal to or greater than 12 times the monthly indemnity. Not included in the benefit calculation are payments for Capital Sum Benefit, Occupational Rehabilitation Benefit, Modification and Access Benefit policy provisions, or any Catastrophic Disability Benefit Rider or Student Loan Protection Rider attached to the policy.

This brochure is provided for informational purposes only and should not be considered tax or legal advice. Your client should contact their tax or legal advisor regarding the tax treatment of the policy and policy benefits. Your client should consult with their own independent tax and legal advisors regarding their particular set of facts and circumstances. The information provided is not intended or written to be used, and cannot be relied upon, to avoid penalties imposed under the Internal Revenue Code or state and local tax law provisions.

Product provisions and availability may vary by state. Refer to the Appendix for more information regarding product terms and conditions.
CONSIDER THIS:
At age 47, you are in a serious auto accident and sustain numerous injuries requiring major surgeries and a lengthy period of physical therapy and rehabilitation. It is three years before you are able to return to work part-time, and then eventually full-time.

▶ You begin to collect your monthly disability benefit of $10,000 after satisfying the policy elimination period.

▶ You receive $531,000 in total and residual disability benefits, including recovery (more than the rider’s qualifying amount of 12 times the monthly benefit, or $120,000).

▶ Although not disabled on the policy expiration date, in this case age 65, you would still qualify for this benefit.

▶ Your Lump Sum Disability Benefit would be $185,850 which is 35% of the total and residual disability benefits paid over the life of the policy.

Graded Lifetime Indemnity for Total Disability Rider

Feature Value

Provides Benefits for Life

How this Feature Works to Protect You

All disability income policies include a monthly benefit for total disability payable for the policy’s benefit period. Few policies offer disability benefits that are payable beyond the benefit period — for life — like ProVider Plus. Our Graded Lifetime Indemnity for Total Disability Rider provides a monthly lifetime indemnity for continuous total disabilities, payable after the policy’s benefit period.

The lifetime indemnity amount is determined at the end of your benefit period by your age when the continuous total disability began. For disabilities that began prior to age 46, the lifetime indemnity is equal to 100% of your policy’s monthly benefit. For continuous total disabilities that began after age 46, the lifetime indemnity amount is reduced (or graded) by 5% for each year.

POINTS TO DRIVE HOME:
- Most affordable for younger clients
- Attractive to those in the medical profession who may have started saving later in life. This rider offers them an added sense of security.
- People today are working longer than previous generations.
- This rider is available on ProVider Plus only.

Presumptive Total Disability Benefit

Engineered to Provide Immediate Benefits in More Situations

How this Feature Works to Protect You

The ProVider Plus Presumptive Total Disability Benefit is a built-in policy feature designed to provide extra financial protection for certain severe disabilities. Even if you can still perform some or all of your regular job responsibilities, and even if you are expected to recover, we consider you to be totally disabled and entitled to full benefits if sickness or injury results in the total and complete loss of sight in both eyes, hearing in both ears, speech, or the entire use of both hands, both feet, or one hand and one foot.

▶ Engineered to provide day one benefits for these severe disabilities, we waive the elimination period and pay full benefits — even if you’re expected to recover, and even if you’re fully employed and earning an income despite your condition.

▶ Other carriers’ policies might only waive the elimination period for presumptive disabilities that are permanent and irrecoverable.

CONSIDER THIS: You suffer compound fractures in both feet due to a car accident, experience the total and complete loss of their use, but are expected to recover.

POINTS TO DRIVE HOME:
• With ProVider Plus, presumptive disabilities need not be irrecoverable — a competitive difference.
• Young professional clients often cite “accidents” as their motivator when considering a disability insurance policy. Discuss the strength of the Presumptive Total Disability Benefit to address this concern.
• The Presumptive Total Disability Benefit could also be triggered by a disabling illness, such as loss of sight in both eyes as the result of diabetes.
Retirement Protection Plus Disability Benefit Rider

Feature Value

Helps Replace Retirement Contributions

How this Feature Works to Protect You

Our Retirement Protection Plus (RPP) Disability Benefit Rider is designed to help you maintain a healthy retirement strategy by replacing contributions made to a defined contribution plan when you are totally disabled and not gainfully employed. Once eligible for benefits, a monthly benefit insuring up to 100% of your retirement contributions, including any employer-matching contributions, will be paid into a trust established by you. The trustee invests benefits at your direction. Here’s how a retirement plan might fare with and without an interruption of contributions.

RPP can close the savings gap caused by a disability. Combined assets, retirement fund if disabled plus RPP trust would total $2,862,326.

Chart Assumptions: $2,000 per month contributed to the plan beginning at age 35. Total disability occurs at age 36 and contributions stop. Insured eligible for benefits under policy, with payments beginning 30 days following 180-day elimination period. Disability continues to age 65. 8% average annual rate of return, based on average annualized return of the S&P 500 from 1/1/90 –12/31/10, 8.23%. This rate is for illustration purposes only.
